

TALENT IN ASCOTT

The winner of "The Guardian" National Christmas Competition in the 'Over Eleven' group was Meredith Chalmers of 'Cobwebs', Shipton Road. The subject of the competition was to update the 'Twelve Days of Christmas'. Here was Meredith's entry.

12 Hunger strikes	6 Mini Metros
11 Ayatollahs	5 Granny Bonds
10 Iron Ladies	4 Cruise missiles
9 Chips computing	3 French lambs
8 Striking workers	2 Royal loves
7 Reds invading	and an oil rig in the North Sea!

Meredith is now the proud possessor of a magnificent multi-gear bicycle!

Ascott Parish Council are entering the Best-Kept Village Competition. The Headmaster is being asked to involve the children and it is hoped that everybody in the village will make a special effort to make this a success.

The Tiddy Hall wish to make it known that it is available for hire at reasonable rates for socials, Bingo, receptions, etc. Booking Secretary: Mrs S. Hickman, 11 Heritage Lane or ring 830058.

"THE WYCHWOOD" FINANCIAL REPORT - 16 February 1981

By:	£
Advertising.....	677.40
Subscriptions - 680.....	488.20
Casual Sales.....	90.36
Donations.....	63.10
Sale of surplus stationery.....	25.00
Bank Interest.....	45.68
	£ 1389.74

To:
Stationery.....	186.25
Duplicating & Printing.....	1014.81
Editor's & Secretary's Expenses.....	85.67
Stapler & Dividers.....	28.99
Hall Hire.....	7.50
Photos (Linfield).....	5.50
At Bank - Deposit	10.68
Current	50.34
	61.02
	£ 1389.74