

"HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN!"

The February gale blew down one of the two beautiful Cedar trees at the Basin Pond in the Wild Garden of the Old Court, Shipton-under-Wychwood. The age of the tree is estimated at some two hundred and fifty years. The girth measurement at the base was seventeen feet.