

SPRINGTIME

Confetti falls from blossom laden trees,
Cherry and almond marry in the breeze,
The Cuckoo spit on lady smock,
The lilac trees in purple frock,
Proclaim that spring is here somewhere!
It's lost in clouded, darkened skies,
And raindrops fall, misting our eyes,
From the beauty of the day.
Quite suddenly the sun comes out,
We see once more that spring's about,
Changing her dress from day to day,
Taking us in to summer's way.
