

The Wychwood

THIS YEAR is the 50th anniversary of the end of the war. Perhaps some of the June / July issue could be given to memories or impressions from all age groups of the wartime period in this country of ours, including a present-day child's idea of what it means to them. Please let me have any article which you care to write by 11th May, 1995.

My husband assures me that computers don't make mistakes, only the operators — computers only partially or completely fail. Nevertheless he is at a loss to explain how the article on Australia in the last issue should have at the end of it the words "Mrs. Smith". We have examined our typed version and can find no reference to Mrs. Smith, nor do we recall seeing it when proof-reading, however it was certainly printed in the magazine! This must have caused some consternation to the author, Mrs. Dora Price, to whom we offer sincere apologies, and from whom we implore forgiveness. However the mystery remains.

It will soon be time for the annual National Spring Clean. It is a shame that such a campaign should be necessary, but although requests are continually been made to everyone to 'take their rubbish home', we still have the determined few who think that it does not refer to them.

Articles for publication in the June / July issue should be submitted to the Editor at the address below, by 13th May 1995.
