

LIFE IS A FUNNY PROPOSITION AFTER ALL

Man comes into this world without his consent, and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings with the balance of his species.

In his infancy he is an angel; in his boyhood he is a devil; in his manhood he is everything from a lizard up.

In his duties he is a damn fool; if he raises a family he is a chump; if he raises a small cheque he is a thief, and then the law raises the devil with him; if he is a poor man he is a poor manager, and has no sense; if he is rich he is dishonest but considered smart.

If he is in politics he is a grafter and a crook; if he is out of politics, you can't place him, as he is an undesirable citizen; if he goes to church he is a hypocrite; if he stays away from church he is a sinner and damned.

When he first comes into the world everyone wants to kiss him – before he goes out they all want to kick him.

Life is a funny road, but we all like to travel it just the same.
