

The Wychwood

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN to a "Sing In"?

My husband and I went, (he with some trepidation) to one organised by Tony Butterfield at Milton – we didn't know the music or what to expect. The audience was 'taught' to be the chorus; and with the conductor, accompanist and soloists, who were superb, we 'gave a performance' to ourselves. The evening was great fun, and it was refreshing to try something new. Thank you Tony and here's to the next time.

The festive season gets under way with entertainment by excellent local talent – see Cinderella, (p.5) at Shipton Village Hall and the Wychwood Singers (p.32) at Milton Church. The Oxford Touring Theatre are bringing Peter Pan to Ascott Tiddy Hall (p. 32) and other entertainments can be found on pp 18 and 28. How lucky we are to have so much choice locally.

We wish all our readers a very happy Christmas with a peaceful and prosperous New Year.
