

The Wychwood

WE WERE PLEASED to receive two articles about Christmas entertainments by the younger members of the Wychwoods, see pages 10 and 21 to 23. Although unable to see the performances myself, I have received many reports of how much they were enjoyed by the audiences – congratulations to all those involved.

Cinderella by the Shipton W.I. and friends was also a resounding success, and has inspired a 'bard' to put pen to paper.

I should also like to remind readers that this is the last issue of the present volume, therefore our distributors will be calling on you to request your support for the next volume. In spite of all the increases in the cost of printing, the price will continue at 20p per copy, or £1.20 for all six delivered to your door.

I would like to thank all our past contributors for their continuing support. Remember it is your magazine, so please keep those articles coming!

Articles for publication in the April / May issue should be submitted to the Editor at the address below, by 9th March 1996.
