

c.t.g.

Cotswold Theatre Group. Patron: Dame Judi Dench

C.T.G. was founded in 1989 by director Alison Sutcliffe and leading actors from the Royal Shakespeare Company. Drawing on the wealth of theatrical talent in the area, the Group has produced work of the highest quality, touring widely in the region and playing to critical acclaim in London.

Productions to date include:

'Huis Clos' - Sartre. Tour and Lyric Theatre, Hammersmith, London.

'Oh Coward' - Noel Coward revue.

'The Dark Lady of the Sonnets' - Bernard Shaw.

'A Betrothal' - Lanford Wilson.

These productions toured and, in association with H.M.Tennant, performed for the 150th celebration of Cunard.

A week of performances at the Corn Exchange, Witney, featured among others Janet Suzman, Freddie Jones, Barney McKenna and Bill Homewood.

'What is Love?'

An evening of music and verse at the Corn Exchange, Witney, on 25th May 1996 at 8.00 p.m. Tickets £6.50 / £5.00 concessions.

Our journey takes us through youth, hot blooded desire, conquest, abandonment, and old age. To include Purcell, Britten, Vaughn Williams, Shakespeare, Donne, Yeats, Brahms, Dvorak, Brooke, Rossetti and more.

Eleanor Lloyd – Soprano and Adrienne Murray – Mezzo Soprano will be accompanied by Nêst Harris on piano. Both singers have sung regularly with the Britten Singers (formerly The B.B.C. Northern Singers) and performed at many festivals here and abroad.

Adrienne specializes in concert and oratorio work, and in addition has made concert and radio broadcasts on Radio 3 and 4, and as a soloist on many occasions. She has also appeared at Covent Garden and the Monto Carlo Opera.

Arthur Kohn and Susan Dury (voice) both from the R.S.C. with many years of theatre, television and radio work.

Alison Sutcliffe (director) R.S.C. latest work at the Barbican 'Christmas Carol'.

Tickets available from:

The Music Stand, High Street, Witney 01993 774890

Frاندels, 51 Market Square, Witney 01993 775840

Free Parking

Bars Available