

The Wychwood

THE TRAGIC DEATH of Diana, Princess of Wales affected us all deeply which was reflected by the number of tributes The Wychwood received. We felt that the article from Trudy Yates (p. 21), while making a connection with Shipton, also encompassed our many thoughts.

Shipton Cricket Club must be congratulated for all the hard work and success which made it possible to play at Lords. They may be runners-up but it was a tremendous achievement and we all shared in the pride and excitement. Thank you.

We see the New Beaconsfield Hall taking shape 'before our very eyes', (and hope the Parish Hall will last out!). Tom Jourdan as Chairman of the Building Sub-Committee has worked so hard through all the different phases — I am not sure whether his headaches are at an end or just beginning, but thank you, Tom.
