

The Wychwood

FOLLOWING MY COMMENTS on unwanted correspondence and telephone calls in the last issue, I have been informed by Olive Tucker that the number to ring to stop unwanted telephone calls is the Telephone Preference Service on 0800 398893. Thank you Olive.

Last year many people in the Wychwoods supported Emmaus and we thought readers would like the update which arrived too late to be included in the main body of the magazine.

Emmaus Oxford is now a Registered Charity. As such, we are urgently looking for qualified Trustees to join the team. In particular we would welcome those with a background in law, accountancy, fund raising or property, but what is needed above all is energy and commitment. We also need people who could give a limited amount of time to occasionally guide and advise us on the above.

The major task for 1998 remains finding a property where up to 25 people could live and work in the community. We believe that when we can focus on the right property the money will follow. We would be very pleased to hear from people who could help in any way as Emmaus Oxford moves into a new phase in 1998.

Any enquiries to Jean Williams on Oxford 511678. Thank you.
