

The Wychwood

WE VERY SADLY have to report the death of one of our magazine committee stalwarts, Vera Winter, past resident of Idbury and more recently of Shipton. The following letter was received from her family.

Vera's family – Adrian, Sue, Nigel and Madalene would like to use the Wychwood Magazine to extend their most sincere thanks to so many people who comforted and supported them during the time leading up to and after Vera's death. The kindness expressed in cards, letters, flowers, donations and words was most greatly appreciated by all the family. At the time of writing over £600 has been kindly donated to The Charitable Fund for District Nursing. This to be used for the purchase of specialist equipment for home nursing.

Vera often remarked on the scale and depth of the kindness shown to her. It is a fitting tribute to the Wychwoods of their generosity of time, love and money. The family will always remember the Wychwoods and more importantly its people, with very great affection.

Adrian Winter 19/9/98.
