

Vol. 19 No. 5

The Wychwood

MANY YEARS AGO we successfully asked for readers' help to find someone, and so we are trying again. Mrs. Win White received a Thank You card in an envelope postmarked Oxford Mail Centre, 25 Sep 98, addressed to:- Mrs. Joan White, Shipton-under-Wychwood, Oxfordshire, referring to photographs received of a lovely day out. Unfortunately the signature is not clear, but could be "Anne". Win's attempts to find the sender or intended recipient have proved unsuccessful. Has anyone any ideas?

This issue contains rather a lot of information about toads, but I hope our readers will find the articles both interesting and informative, also giving anyone wishing to help Ascott Toad Patrol for 1999 plenty of time to get in touch.

With the publicity for the Wychwood Players' pantomime in the New Beaconsfield Hall, we thought readers might be interested to see a copy of an old programme for a past theatre production, circa 1947, in the old Beaconsfield Hall, (pp. 27 - 28), which contains many familiar names. No wonder we have such talent in the Wychwoods!

This is our Christmas edition, the 19th. We have lasted so long due to the advertisers and thousands of contributions received, on which we are totally dependent, plus our essential distributors and readers. May we take this opportunity to express our thanks, and wish you all, advertisers, contributors, distributors and readers, a Very Happy Christmas and successful New Year.

Articles for publication in the December / January issue should be submitted to the Editor at the address below, by 9th January 1999.
