

Congratulations!

Mr. Malcolm Cochrane, Chairman of Shipton Parish Council and past Sheriff of Oxford, has now been appointed Vice Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire. This post was introduced in 1882. The Vice Lord Lieutenant is appointed by the Lord Lieutenant with the approval of The Queen. As The Queen's representative in Oxfordshire the Lord Lieutenant has numerous official and social duties. If he is unable to carry out any of these duties he may ask his Vice Lord Lieutenant to represent him.

We thought that readers would be interested to see a photocopy of the document of appointment, which we have included opposite.
