Spring Tour 2000 visits Shipton

On 14 February 2000, the classic film 'Brief Encounter' is being re-released nation-wide.

Anyone who is a fan of the film and who enjoys a romantic yarn with a cliff-hanger ending should come and see the OTTC production:-

Rehearsing Brief Encounter

a new play by Phil Smith

at The New Beaconsfield Hall, Shipton-under-Wychwood
on Friday 3 March 2000, at 7.30 pm

An actress and a director meet in an Oxfordshire village to start rehearsals of a play of the film 'Brief Encounter'.

She is a minor soap-star and has been invited to take the Celia Johnson part; he is a young cutting-edge actor and director who has just made his first film and will play the Trevor Howard part.

Sparks begin to fly as rehearsals continue and a cat-and-mouse game of love and passion ensues. Will they or won't they ...fall in love ?

Tickets available on 01993 832216.

Full price: £5.00 or £3.50 for concessions.

Demolishing The Old Shipton Parish Hall

I said for years that I would like to be on the bulldozer.

About to get my revenge!
