POPPY APPEAL R.B.L. W.S. WYCHWOOD

As 1999 was my last year as P.A.O., I would like to say a very big thank you to all who helped in any way over the last nine years. The door-to-door collectors, the businesses who had static boxes, the Guides, Brownies, Scouts, Cubs and, of late, Rainbows, for attending Church Parade and to you, the people who have given so generously in Milton-under-Wychwood, Upper Milton, Lynham and, last year, part of Bruern. Also to Mr and Mrs P Hepden for their help and Mrs I Morgan for use of her car.

If anyone is willing to take on this good cause I will help in any way I can. My reasons for giving up are of a personal nature.

The total collected for 1999 was £1,354.79 to which a donation of £125 is to be added giving a final total of £1,479.79.

Lynham total £69.35. Golf Club £51.60. Bruern £36.38. Upper Milton £91.20.

Again many, many thanks for your support.

E.D. Austin. P.A.O.
