

The Wychwood

I MUST APOLOGISE for an error in the last issue. In the Ascott Directory, under "Clubs and Societies, Women's Institute", the telephone number for Mrs. J Schwarz should have read 831686.

We would like to thank our hard working distributors for their success with the collection of subscriptions, which are now practically all in.

The Wychwoods History Society's Millennium Exhibition is not to be missed. A tremendous amount of time and effort have gone into making it something which should be of immense interest to us all, (see p.14).

'People Power' does work sometimes! It seems incredible that two years ago we were fighting to save our library, which was fortunately successful, (would that we had the same success with Burford Hospital), and now it has been given a grant enabling the installation of an Internet terminal, (see p.13).

If you do not have a computer, but would like to search for information on any subject at all, obtain the latest news, shop, visit Buckingham Palace, the Washington Museum, or an art gallery, etc., or simply send e-mails to anyone in the world, you should pay a visit.

Articles for publication in the June / July issue should be submitted to the Editor at the address below, by 8th May, 2000.
