

Lee Potter of Milton died tragically aged 21, on the 11th October, 1999.
The following is an extract from a poem written by his brother Dean, copied from the original.

Dear Willis
Happy Millennium...

A Brother so Wonderful
I guess it's just your name
Believe me without you life just isn't the same
But for as long as we live
We will always be glad of
The wonderful memories
Of a brother we had...
All these days have passed
It still doesn't seem true
But there still isn't a day go by
Without thinking of you
Not only a brother an uncle as well
Ask Gemma Ryan and Shaznay and they will tell
For them being so young it's hard to explain
Lets hope were on the road to memory lane...
The love of cars we both so had
There's only one person to thank and that will be dad...
And for mum she's the one
Gave birth to us trusted us what's more
Could be done...
I'm just writing to say we all miss you so much
And hoping one day I'll hold you and touch
Wherever you are please save me a seat
Because I know one day were going to meet...
