

LIGHTS OF LOVE

Lighting the Tree in Remembrance of our Loved Ones

Every Christmas, a giant Lights of Love Tree is erected outside Sobell House covered in lights in memory of loved ones who are no longer with us. This year, we will once again be holding a memorial service and lighting the tree.

The Lights of Love Tree will be lit on Saturday 9th December at 3.30 pm. A short service will be held near to the tree and guests will have an opportunity to view the Book of Remembrance. You are very welcome to join us at the service and take part by dedicating a light.

All donations this year will be going to the "Raising the Roof" Appeal to build a new Sobell House Hospice for the people of Oxfordshire. If you are interested in dedicating a light please call the Sobell House Hospice Charity office on 01865 883339.

WUTHERING HEIGHTS

PRESENTED BY THE OXFORDSHIRE TOURING THEATRE COMPANY

AT

The New Beaconsfield Hall, Shipton Under Wychwood.

FRIDAY 16th FEBRUARY 2001

Adapted by Lynn Robertson Hay, 'Wuthering Heights' by Emily Bronte, is a passionate and tragic love story played out against the wild and hostile landscape of the Yorkshire Moors. The depth and emotional intensity of the relationship between Catherine Earnshaw and the brooding Heathcliff is so great that their actions reach out even beyond the grave, binding their two families together forever.

OTTC have performed at the New Beaconsfield Hall several times. Their performances are always excellent and provide the audience with a lot to discuss afterwards. Come along and relive the excitement of the first time you read 'Wuthering Heights'.

Tickets will be available in January from Alice at the New Beaconsfield Hall.

To reserve by phone please call 01993 832216
or call in on weekday mornings.
