

Thanks.

As the deadline for this edition of the Wychwood Magazine rapidly approaches I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who gave sponsorship so generously for my recent "wing walk". My gratitude also goes to all those who worked so hard to make the fete itself such a brilliant success.

I will write a full report for the next edition but would like to say that it was a truly moving sight to see so many gathered at the fete, some I know harbouring Machiavellian wishes to see me fall off. To those I can only apologise for disappointing them and in particular to those few who offered to double their donation if I did!

To date the Everest Memorial Trust is over £5,000 richer with still some money to be collected. The building at Pheriche Hospital can now continue this autumn as planned.

Now next year .....!

Dr. Sandy Scott.

Ode to Doc.

He flies through the air, on a wing and a prayer
Swooping down over the trees
He stands alone, throughout the plane's drone
Through his fair hair blows the breeze.

The dashing young doc gave us a shock
Looping the loop in the sky.
And up we did stare, as he gave us a scare
"Oh no!" said the crowd with a sigh.

To those who've not paid, come give us some aid
To sponsor this mad crazy man
To pay for his scheme and fulfil his dream.....
Then wait for his next madcap plan.

Ruth Andrews.