

The Festive Season – 2001 – 2002

The Church Bazaar at Milton Village Hall – with a band of willing helpers – got off to a flying start.

To anyone who missed the Wychwood School Concert in the Church the children gave a great performance ably assisted by the teachers who, under the circumstances of having builders at the school, worked wonders.

To Mr. Padmore and his team, many thanks for the enjoyment Mrs. Christmas and myself got from the Concert. Thank you.

To all those people who joined in the carols gathered around the Christmas tree singing loud and clear, adults and children alike, on a very cold evening, and also donating a princely sum of £95 to a collection which was given to Langston House Comforts Fund, many thanks. And oh! to the lady who said I was singing off key, perhaps we should get together and practise, or was it the mulled wine and mince pies so generously donated by Edna and John Naish from the Post Office. To all those people who joined in the carol singing later that evening in the Quart Pot – just great.

To the ladies at the Pet Shop “Smart Dog” – what a wonderful window display. A lot of effort and time, all add to the joy of Christmas.

So – after dashing in and out of the School, and the Toddlers, and the Playgroup, and the Nursery – great stuff. To all the helpers who make these events work, including the Children’s Party at Milton Club, their efforts are surely appreciated by all. And to visit Langston House on Christmas morning and see for oneself the dedication, love and care given to the residents by the staff, gives you a lift to Christmas in our troubled world.

Good health and much happiness to everyone. HAPPY NEW YEAR 2002.
