

Tiddy Hall, Ascott-u-Wychwood

On Monday 3rd June the village held their Jubilee celebrations. The church bells heralded the start of the celebrations and a full congregation attended the Service of Blessing in the Church.

This was followed by activities on the recreation ground, including an Ascott Earl v Ascott D'Oyley rounders match.

In the evening nearly 200 people filled the Tiddy Hall for a village dinner. Many villagers contributed salads and puddings towards the feast. We were entertained by local people with singing, music and poetry all wonderfully performed.

The whole day was a memorable occasion when villagers of all ages gathered together in unity .
