
First Wychwood Guides in Crisis

Proud History

No-one seems quite sure when Guiding started in the Wychwoods but there was certainly a Company back in the Thirties. The present group has been running for at least twenty-five years. About 20 girls meet each Wednesday evening in the New Beaconsfield Hall and enjoy a variety of activities designed to teach them personal development and teamwork.

In their own words

"I would not like Guides to close for we get a chance to meet other people here. It is an enjoyable yet educational experience."

"Wanted: Smiley Guide Leader."

Are you willing to take up the challenge?

"Guides is fun."

"It's not a paid job; if you don't volunteer please think of someone who might."

"There are so many Guides who want to carry on."

If you think you could help, or know someone else who might be able to help, please come along to one of our meetings and see us in action. Please ring our District Commissioner,

Closing at Christmas?

Unfortunately Tracy and Alison, who have been running the Company for several years, have decided that the time has come to concentrate on work and family commitments. The unit is now likely to close at Christmas unless replacements can be found.

Allotments and Gardens Association

My last report dealt mainly with the 2003 Annual Show and a follow-up on shows and judging was the subject of our September meeting. Jenny Worsfold, the judge for our Vegetable and Fruit Classes, gave us a summary of the work of a qualified judge. She would like more people to consider becoming Judges, especially for small village shows.

Committee members having brought similar items to the exhibits in our August show. Jenny persuaded several members to come forward and try their hand at judging, resulting in a very interesting and amusing meeting.

Look out for posters announcing our forthcoming meetings. We are always very pleased to welcome visitors to our meetings

Home Grown Entertainment

The evening was very entertaining as it took the shape of a mini-show,
