
Idbury Arts Festival 2006

Following the huge success of last year's first Idbury Arts Festival, tickets have gone on sale for this year's events, which start at 7pm on the first Saturdays in June, July, August and September.

in the Cotswolds. Finally, on 2nd September Jenny Aston, who runs Silver Apples Photography in Stow, will talk on: What makes a good photograph?

The Festival opens with a display of English folk dance and song by Ducklington Morris, with a street party atmosphere, on Saturday 3rd June. On 1st July the psychologist Oliver James (author of Britain on the Couch) will discuss the pros and cons of living in the country or the city entitled Bonkers in London, sane in the country? On 5th August, Chipping Norton musician and composer Raymond Head will give a talk with musical illustrations, Abroad as I was walking: Gustav Holst

Drinks and nibbles in a local garden follow each event - the ideal way to meet old friends and make new ones.

Season tickets cost £30 (under 16s £20) and are available from Kate Ransom in Idbury on: 01993 830246 and Nicki Sissons in Fifield on: 01993 831235. Individual tickets will be available on the night, on a first-come-first-served basis at £10 (under 16s £6). Profits go to run the Festival and to support the Fifield-with-Idbury PCC.

The New Wychwood Surgery

Business as Usual

The new surgery at Meadow Lane, Shipton under Wychwood opened on Tuesday, 30th May 2006. The telephone number, 01993 831061 will remain the same, as will the out of hours emergency contact number 0845 345 8995.

Surgeries will continue as they have always been, with open surgeries in the morning from 8.45 to 10.30am and booked appointments in the afternoon. Moving to new premises is an exciting prospect for patients and staff and we do hope that you will bear with us while we settle in. Once all the building work has been completed we will be holding an official Open Day to allow everyone to have a look round the facilities.

Latest Addition

Dr Katherine Welsh also joined the practice on 30th May 2006. She will be holding surgeries on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and from 1st August 2006 on Friday morning as well.
