

Margaret Leaves School at 70!

Margaret Hunt has been a Lunchtime Supervisor at Wychwood Primary School for just over 30 years, starting 2nd November 1976 and for 8 years before that at St Mary's School, Shipton. In February, just before her 70th birthday, she retired from this role.

costumes, singing, dancing and acting, she does not know how they did it all; she will never forget them.

Never Missed a Sports Day

Then there have been the sports days; she never missed one until two years ago. She

Changes at School

Margaret has seen a lot of changes at the school in this time. She has worked for four different head teachers, the building has grown with the addition of the Foundation Stage Unit, two new classrooms on the end of the school and the quiet area added and the number of children to look after has increased making lunchtimes a lot busier.

When I asked her what she enjoyed about working at the school she said: "Everything". She is going to miss it very much. She will miss the company of the children and staff and hopes to come and visit now and again to say "Hello". Over the years she has enjoyed the lovely plays the school has put on with all the has enjoyed looking at all the children's art and written work that has been on the displays in the school hall, she said the children are quite artistic and have got good imaginations. Margaret has always got on well with the other lunchtime staff and has enjoyed her school dinners, most recently prepared by Michelle, Rene and Rebekah.

We had a collection for Margaret and presented her gifts at a school assembly. We wish Margaret all our best wishes in her retirement and thank her for her dedicated service to the school for so many years.

Finstock Fun Day: 17th and 18th August

This year Finstock will be holding their third Fun Day, which promises to be even bigger and better.

Desperately Seeking a Marquee!

We desperately need a marquee for the event, which is a platform for local groups to come and have a great day, raise funds for their groups such as Schools, Pre-school, WI, Church etc.

Can You Help Please?

If anyone reading this has, or knows of a marquee that we could borrow or hire at a small cost please contact me. Thank you!
