

Summer Pudding

I have been asked to do a review of Summer Pudding starring Anything Goes and Voice Box. In a way I am an odd choice as Kaye my wife keeps telling me that I am the only Welsh man who can't sing a note, but that did not stop me from having a wonderful evening!

A Great Atmosphere

I'm sure nobody would argue that Lesley Morris has a wonderful voice but I also found her conducting of the choir riveting. She lived every note and word and it helped to create a great atmosphere.

She was more than supported by Keith Harris with his playing of the electric piano and his guitar, at one point he did a really good duet with Lesley.

Then of course we had Voice Box a young choir who showed a great deal of talent and enthusiasm. They all seemed to enjoy themselves so much and that transmitted to the audience. Recently they received a commendation at the Chipping Norton Music Festival and on the evidence of this evening it was well deserved.

Proof of the Pudding....?

I feel I have to give a special mention to Jan Harvey. I have known for a while that she is a good artist but I did not know she had such a good singing voice, she came forward and did a great solo and then later a duet both of which got a resounding cheer from the audience.

They say the proof of the pudding is in the eating; well this evening was a feast. So "thank you" to Lesley and Keith for organising such a great night and for such a good charity, Against Breast Cancer.

The evening raised a magnificent £550 for this locally based charity and mention must go to the ladies who organised everything down to the last strawberry!
