

Library News

A Warm Welcome to Ruth!

Wychwood Library has a new manager, Ruth Gillingham. Many of you will know me as I was Beryl Brown's assistant for 10 years and I am very pleased to be following in her footsteps and looking after this valuable village asset.

Oxfordshire Libraries also have Online facilities.

Library Online

You can join the Library online and access a wide range of information sites including:

Britannica Online, Grove Art Online,

Grove Music Online, Times Digital Archive and several others. Reserve and renew your books online, discover the history of your area and check out our services for children. Come on in and pick up our information pack along with a PIN number.

I look forward to seeing you here. We need your support!

Books, DVD's, Internet Access

If you haven't visited Wychwood Library come in and see our well stocked bookshelves, DVD's, Videos, large print books and books on tape or disc as well as our delightful children's area. Also, check your e-mails or surf the internet in our extended computer area on our brand new machines.

Now Coffee and Eats Too!

New to Wychwood Library in 2008 will be coffee mornings on Wednesdays. Take a break and meet your friends here between 10.30 and 12 noon every week. Good coffee, delicious eats and wonderful surroundings, but remember to bring your membership card to top up your pile of books.

Record Audiences at Flix Floods

On Friday and Saturday 11th and 12th January 2008, it was standing room only when Flix in the Stix showed their exclusive double bill, premiering their DVD The Wychwoods in Flood, along with the award winning film Atonement. 90 attended at Shipton, 80 at Ascott and 40 at Milton. Well done to the Flix Team!

Very many thanks to Jan Harvey for her lively illustrations on pages 11 and 43.
