

Have You Seen This Woman?

The Litter Pickers of the Ascott Road in Shipton are intrigued. Having analysed the various items recovered from road verges over the past three years we suspect we are looking for just one person who is guilty of littering our village.

The Evidence

The top items recovered by us are:-

- 1) A very full bag of thawing, frozen meat
- 2) A size 32DD bra and a pot of Benecol.
- 3) An entire Christmas Dinner including melon balls in a port wine starter
- 4) A large (assorted) collection of beer cans
- 5) At least 250 cigarette packs
- 6) A tennis racquet

Looking at the evidence, we think that we are looking for a woman wearing a 32DD bra and possibly the contents of a pot of Benecol.

Fingering the Suspect

This lady is very fond of beer and red meat. She celebrates Christmas but has a fickle attitude towards her festive food. She probably has a smoker's cough which might become worse when she plays tennis. We'd like to know who she is, but we are not sure we want to meet her!

So, if you know anyone answering this description, could you tell her that dropping litter makes a good deal of work for us and really messes up our part of the Wychwoods. Thank you.

Litter Pickers of the Ascott Road

Cotswold Antique Study Group

On Wednesday 13th February at 2:00pm in Bradwell Village Hall (coffee 1:15 to 1:45), The Cotswold Antiques Study Group will host a talk entitled The English Domestic Revival, dealing with country-house architecture at the end of the 19th Century.

The speaker will be Christopher Rogers, formerly Head of Geography at Downs House School, Newbury and lecturer for the National Trust.

Bradwell Village Hall is two miles south of Burford on the A361 Lechlade road. Non-members are always welcome. The Study Group meets regularly and anyone interested in future programmes or in joining should contact the Membership Secretary on: 01869 345332.

The Wychwood still Great Value!

The Wychwood continues to sell more than 1300 copies per issue. The support of our readers and the loyalty of our stalwart advertisers, means that we can hold the price per issue of the 2008/2009 volume at 40p, the annual subscription remaining at £2.40. The price of UK postal subscriptions will increase from £6 to £6.50 from April 2008.