

Supper Evening Sandcastles

Wychwood Players' next production, which will run from Thursday November 27th to Saturday 29th, is a light-hearted comedy by Bob Larbey who is best-known for writing, with the late John Esmonde, such memorable television series as The Good Life and Ever Decreasing Circles. More recently, on his own, he wrote A Fine Romance and As Time Goes By and in 2000 BT commissioned him to create Sandcastles, especially for some 83 amateur stage companies to perform nation-wide.

The Seaside Comes to Shipton!

Now Wychwood Players bring a touch of the seaside to Shipton's New Beaconsfield Hall, as all the action of Sandcastles takes place on a beach and the humorous plot concerns the rivalry between the beach-hut owners and the property-less sand-dwellers. The Director, Mandyrae Large, promises that summer is coming in November and has assembled an enthusiastic and talented cast, which includes three generations of Hartleys with Rose playing Margaret,

Richard playing Doug and Richard Junior taking the part of one of the children playing on the beach. Other leading roles are played by Phillip Croxson, Mark Jessey, Kate Young, Barbara

Wilson, Jill Collins, Elizabeth-Rae Large, Joan Hawker and Chris Walters. Mandyrae is delighted to introduce newcomers Kim Bradley (and daughter Isa), Sheela Cousins and Joanna Scott-Smith.

With Genuine Fish and Chips

To add to the feel of summertime at the seaside this special Supper Evening will include genuine Fish & Chips and a pudding of Banana Splits. So it's a real treat: no rain to dampen spirits, no sand in the sandwiches and the prospect of a bikini or two!

The Supper Evenings begin at 7pm with tickets at just £12-50. As numbers are limited, early booking is advised, telephone Beryl Collins at the Box Office number: 0777 6029871 from November 1st.

John Drew

Folk Dance with Scaley Ceilidh Band

Wednesday 8th October 7:30pm

At Chadlington Memorial Hall £5. 00 (children £1:00.) Soft drinks bar or bring your own wine. Tickets and further information from Morton: 01608 676302