

Library News

It is nice to see the first green shoots of spring after what has been a winter to remember! We managed to stay open for all but one of the snowy days and were pleasantly surprised to see how many people took advantage of the enforced inactivity to snuggle down with a book or two.

During half term the library hosted a Fairy Day. We were inundated with a delightful collection of pastel coloured fairies complete with wings and wands and even the library ladies were sporting their usually hidden wings!

Our Junior and Adult book groups are still going strong, meeting monthly in the library. The May choice for the adult group is The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak. The Wychwood Word Peckers are trying out some new titles and sharing favourite reads.

Your Views Please

We are always very happy to receive customer comments about any aspect of our service and we will make every effort to take your views into consideration when planning services or making changes. If you wish to make a comment please fill in one of our comment forms and hand it in to the counter or post it to the address provided. We also value your opinions about books you have read, it is good to pass on recommendations from one reader to another. With spring comes Easter and we hope to hold an Easter

Craft Morning for the children on Thursday April 9th. There will be stories, poems and things to make and do and coffee and cake for the mums.

Looking even further ahead,

Wychwood Library will be participating in the National Adult Learning Week. We will be running computer courses with the help of parish volunteers. You can sign up for an hour long 1-2-1 lesson to be held in the week beginning the 9th May. Ask at the library for more details nearer the time. Our coffee mornings are proving popular. Come and join us between 10am and noon on a Wednesday for freshly brewed coffee and home-made chocolate brownies.

Staff News

We welcome a new member to our team. Angela Townsend, whom many of you will remember from her days at Burford School, is joining us as a relief staff. She already helps at coffee mornings but now she will be here more regularly.

We look forward to seeing you in the library.

Ruth, Liz and Angela.
