

Diplomatic Memories A Close Shave

In the summer of 1955, I found myself as the most junior member of Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan's party in attendance on Sir Anthony Eden at the first four-power Summit meeting in Geneva, involving the US and French Presidents, Eisenhower and Mollet, and Messrs Krushchev and Bulganin.

found myself in my hotel room one afternoon wondering if I ought to be busy somewhere, when the telephone rang.

Wrong Man

"Is that Mr Graham?" the voice said. "Yes," said I. "When are you addressing the meeting?" Panic; I had heard of cricketing night-watchmen but this was ridiculous. Noting my hesitation the voice continued, "It is Mr Billy Graham is it?" Saved, but not by evangelism - wrong man, wrong meeting.

Power Summit?

It was my first experience of that sort of thing and I was not at all sure of my duties beyond carrying papers and opening car doors as appropriate. Thus I

Delivering The Wychwood to Leaffield

Our display at Ascott Fete has paid an unexpected dividend. We now have a volunteer prepared to deliver the magazine in Leaffield. The Wychwood will still be available at the Leaffield village shop but perhaps you would like to have an annual subscription?

If you would like to have the magazine delivered please ring Doreen Barnes on: 01993 831411, or complete and submit the form on our website: www.thewychwood.co.uk

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Wychwood Surgery will be holding their coffee morning on Friday, September 25th this year. As well as raising money to support the work of the Macmillan nurses, we hope to invite all the wonderful volunteer drivers who are the backbone of the Wychwood Surgery Transport scheme. It will be an opportunity to thank the drivers, without whom many patients would be unable to get to hospital and surgery appointments, and possibly to recruit new drivers.

If you are already a driver or think you would like to offer your services, come along and have a chat over a coffee and homemade cake. The commitment is as small or as large as you want it to be. The service is a vital link for so many.

Heather Derkacz will be holding her own coffee morning for the Macmillan fund on Tuesday 29th September at Southfield, Leaffield Road, Shipton. Look out for posters nearer the time.
