

Fifield News

After three or four long years of work, worry, fund-raising, debating, commissioning, meetings and decision making, the work is done and the Hall is definitely 'back in business'.

Many have helped along the way but special thanks must go to Lucy Maitland Smith for her legendary computer skills, Diana Coad for her calm good sense and Geoffrey Maitland Smith for his generosity and wide experience.

The Hall is Opening in 2010

A recent donation has allowed us to purchase new tables and chairs, matching crockery, glassware and tablecloths. Only a small sum is now outstanding and when that is cleared the Trustees will concentrate on building reserves to maintain the Hall. David Cameron will officially open the Hall; details in 2010.

The Post Office at the Parish Hall

John Naish is back in the Hall from 2pm to 4 pm. every Thursday.
