

Penelope Fulljames

Penelope Fulljames has returned to Milton and set up her easel on which she is producing striking paintings of local landscapes and especially the Wild Garden, as featured on our cover this month.

Penelope has concentrated on many small studies of local views, especially one of her favourite haunts - the pond at the Wild Garden.

Penelope will be opening her cottage studio,

Harolds Gate in Jubilee Lane, Milton for

Artweeks 2010, from 22nd to 31st May.

Do call in and have a look at her many and varied paintings, from local views to exotic animals set in wild and beautiful scenery.

Penelope will be giving a donation from sales of her paintings of The Wild Garden to the Appeal Fund which has been launched to purchase the Gardens as a local amenity.

For more information take a look at Penelope's website:

www.penelopefulljames.com

Christine Halliday

Mediterranean

Penelope left England with a degree in Fine Art from Portsmouth Art College and headed to the Mediterranean. She found Ibiza and decided to settle there with her husband and two young children, far away from the 20th century.

She gradually achieved a reputation as a miniaturist exhibiting annually in Ibiza's museum 'La Casa de la Curia' and selling her work in London's Burlington Arcade. By the 90s her now larger paintings were being sold in Bond Street, at Christie's Wildlife Sales and in the USA.

During her annual visits to Milton,

Lawrence Home Nursing Team Photographic Competition

We are looking for a special photograph which could become a Christmas card to be sold at the end of this year in aid of The Lawrence Home Nursing Team. Having had such a snowy winter and seen so many photographers taking wonderful pictures of local scenes, we decided to hold a competition, so anyone who has taken photographs of snow scenes or anything Christmassy is invited to enter. The winning picture will become a Christmas card with the photographer's name on the back, unless he or she wishes to remain anonymous. Mr and Mrs Graeme Garden have kindly agreed to judge the entries.

The closing date is 1st June and entries should be submitted as a photograph, no bigger than 5" x 7" and sent to Nikki Knott, Litchfield Farm, Enstone, with a SAE.

Jill Mavin