

News from the Wychwood Library

Thank you to all our new volunteers who read last month's article and have come forward to help at our coffee mornings every Wednesday. This is always a lovely time here at the Library with the great smell of coffee and chocolate brownies, so do bring your friends and see what we have to offer on our shelves as well.

The last Wednesday afternoon of each month is Introduction to Computers time with many thanks to the Wychwood Volunteers. This is an opportunity to learn the basics of computers, to improve your skills to ask an expert about a particular problem or to seek help using the Ancestry site. The sessions are very popular, so do book early.

We still have the Unwind your Mind collection of books in the Library. These self-help books deal with issues such as depression, anxiety and how to get a good night's sleep! We would also like to promote Pictures to Share books which can be requested by individual carers to use with a friend or relative suffering from dementia. These items encourage discussion and recall memories. Please ask at the Library desk for assistance.

The 2011 Census is happening on the 27th March. You can still fill in your details online a couple of weeks after the date so do make use of our computer facilities. Answers Direct is another service offered by Oxfordshire Libraries. Just call: 0845 600 3119 anytime between 9am and 7pm

Monday to Thursday
or 9am to 5pm on Friday and Saturdays
or email
libraryanswersdirect @oxfordshire.gov.uk
for a high-quality
answer from a helpful team
dedicated to finding information for everyone in Oxfordshire. The team can provide answers to questions big and small on anything and everything from company and legal information; to sources of homework help - although they don't write the homework answers for you! And, if they can't find the answer, they will do their best to refer you to someone who may be able to help further.

Just a reminder that book requests are free for children until they are 18! Ordering from home online is convenient or we can help you here at the desk and you will have what you want very quickly. If you would like to use one of our windows to promote a local activity please ask us. Wychwood Library is not on the list of libraries to be closed but it is even more important to make use of this local facility so we look forward to your visits.

Happy Easter to you all.

Ruth Gillingham and Liz Newport.
