Ascott Songsters Sing For You

On March 25th 2012 at 6pm in Tiddy Hall, the Ascott Songsters will be putting on an evening of songs from well known musicals of the 20th Century.

A Good Tune

The idea is to bring a smile to your face, and remind you that a good tune never dies! From the early days, this group has met in my house on Mondays to work out our programmes and we have grown in size as well as enthusiasm. With cajoling and encouragement and many good natured laughs, we have been able to entertain many, and raise money for Cancer Research.

Now we turn to raising funds for our great

Tiddy Hall.

How lucky we are to have such a facility and how diverse are the ways of using it! This year sees all of us making the centenary of the hall a special reason for putting on our latest concert.

All funds raised will be for Tiddy Hall, and we will give you an evening to remember, with rousing choruses, lovely solos, tasty nibbles, and a chance to buy a glass of wine at the bar.

Keep your eyes peeled to get your tickets for this 'not to be missed' fun evening!

Daphne Abe.

Artists Who Performed at October Folk Night

Let's not forget Mark Pidgeon who was one of the local artists who contributed to this magnificent evening, packed out with grateful fans and raising over a thousand pounds.
