

Coffee in Aladdin's Cave

Did you know that, alongside the various coffee mornings running in village halls, the Library and the Baptist church we also have a coffee and tea shop operating in the Hillborough in Milton?

boxes, bags to the smartest umbrellas imaginable. You have to take a look to see for yourself, there is so much on offer.

Easy Shopping

On Saturday
December 8th,
10am to 3pm,
Beverley has

A Treasure Trove

I decided it was time to take a look. With a couple of friends, we found it was the perfect place to sit and chat. Beverley Trowbridge serves a delicious cup of coffee, or tea if you prefer, but as it was 10am coffee and homemade cake it had to be, all served in vintage, bone-china cups, saucers and plates, how elegant is that? But here comes the 'Aladdin's Cave' bit, the coffee shop, in the conservatory at the back of the house, is crammed with interesting items for sale - from furniture and interior decorations, candles and vases, Christmas decorations, jewellery, organised a special Christmas shopping event, in conjunction with her niece, Stevee Hunt, who will be bringing along items from her boutique in Montpelier, Cheltenham.

Heather Edwards of The Beauty Room will also be there displaying many treats from the Neal's Yard Organics range. Why battle with the crowds when you can shop easily so close to home?

The cafe is open for business every Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10am to 4pm.
