

The 101st Chipping Norton Music Festival

Chipping Norton Music Festival 8th to 23rd March 2013

This is a traditional Festival providing a platform for people of all ages, regardless of any disability, to perform in front of an audience and an adjudicator. These adjudicators are trained for their role and have a high level of expertise in their chosen field. Audiences for the classes are most welcome and can be an enlightening experience for those who come.

she became hooked on the Alphorn when she visited Switzerland a few years ago. This is going to be a fun event where you may need lots of puff!

Tickets: £5.00 with a free child ticket per adult.
Additional children £1.00.

Jazz Sets the Scene

The Festival lasts for two weeks starting on Friday 8th March with the Youth Jazz Band Challenge presented in association with Chipping Norton Rotary Club. This event has been our Festival opener for a few years now and never disappoints. Come and enjoy the vibrancy and sheer enjoyment these young people give.

Tickets: £2.50 available on the door or in advance from Jaffé & Neale: 01608 641033.

This event will be held at Chipping Norton School.

We also include some professional concerts for our community in Chipping Norton and the surrounding area, bringing high quality performances for all to enjoy.

Sunday March 10th 3:00pm Amazing Alphorn

The first professional concert is aimed at a younger audience but promises to be something of a different experience for all ages. Although Frances Jones plays many different wind instruments professionally

Sunday 17th March 7:30pm The Adderbury Ensemble

A more sober occasion, but none the less enjoyable, will be held on the evening of Sunday 17th March when we welcome the highly acclaimed Adderbury Ensemble who will be joined by Viv McLean to play the Dvořák second piano quintet in A major as part of their programme.

Tickets £12.00 available on the door or in advance from Jaffé & Neale: 01608 641033.

The Festival Concert Rounds it off The Festival Concert on March 23rd

showcases the best performances from Festival classes, and if the last few years are anything to go by is a town event not to be missed.

Tickets £5.00 (free to Friends of the Festival) from Jaffé & Neale: 01608 641033.

The Festival and concerts are held in Chipping Norton Town Hall. The programme with full details of the classes will be available from Jaffé & Neale towards the end of February. If you would like more information, see the website, email secretary@cnmf.org.uk or telephone: 01993 831810.
