

“What You Want to be...?” Party

February is a dreary month at best and often cold at worst, so to ease those post festive-season blues, Yours Truly and an intrepid gang of helpers (Lara Peniket, Emma Hillyard, Debs Jenkins and the lovely Mrs Rogers) are arranging a party!

from the best Boy-Band in the Wychwoods, Ragged Edge (well I would say that wouldn't I!). There will be a bar, supplied by the Oxford Wine Company. All proceeds will go to the Alzheimer's Society and there will be a bottle of posh bubbly for the best costume, so I hope you can join me and gang for this exciting evening.

So, Act Out Your Fantasies!

The What You Want To Be When You Grow Up Party will be held on Saturday February 23rd at the New Beaconsfield Hall, Shipton -under-Wychwood. Why not get your fantasies out of the closet and act them out? Just £20 for a ticket gets you in (which helps), a smashing Bilash Curry (choice of three curries, naan, rice and extra hot sauce for those brave enough), plus an evening of entertainment

Friends of Guiding will be holding a Flix in the Stix night at the New Beaconsfield Hall, Shipton on Friday, March 15th, to raise funds to support Guiding at every level throughout Oxfordshire.

A delicious home-cooked supper will be served; a bar will be available. After much deliberation we have decided to show Moulin Rouge, a musical starring Nicole Kidman and Ewan McGregor. Tickets will be £12 per head, to include supper and are available from Christine Halliday.
