

The Wychwood

Spring into Life

Like Tony Lewis of MUWAGA, on page 53, and all our readers we are looking forward to the arrival of spring. This is the time of year when life has so much to offer, so check out our pages and be sure not to miss any of the events planned throughout the Wychwoods. From teas in Ascott, page 25, concerts in Milton Church, page 39, and the New Beaconsfield Hall, Shipton, page 27, and Easter treats for the children at Ascott and Milton, pages 9 and 15. Do not miss the Chipping Norton Literary Festival, page 59, Artweeks exhibitions, Easter cakes for sale on page 61 and beautiful gardens open to admire in Fifield and Shipton and The Hound from the Wychwood Players.

There is no time to stand and stare, even the mayflies are busy, page 19.

If you feel like getting active you could sign up for the Bowls Club, page 11, join the over 50s keep fit class or any of the other classes at New Beaconsfield Hall, or take an organized walk with a Cotswold warden. We welcome the revival, after an absence of 21 years, of the Scout Movement in the village – may they be as successful and well-supported as the Guide Movement for girls.

Enjoy the Spring!
