

Happy Birthday New Beaconsfield Hall Fifteen Years and Going Strong

All those years ago when planning and fundraising began to replace the old Beaconsfield Hall, did we ever imagine that, fifteen years on, it would be the huge success that it has become? It is fair to say that during weekdays there is always something going on, with clubs and classes, sports and various groups making it the vital, much-loved hub of our community.

accommodate up to 30 people and can be set up with tables, chairs, a projector and screen if needed.

The Gym

Then there is the gym, situated at the rear of the hall. Open from early morning until late at night, our users find it very convenient to drop in to suit their busy schedules - so handy to have this facility on the doorstep. Check out our rates with Lee - you will find them very competitive.

The Best 'Marquee' You will Find!

But the hall has much more to offer than the regular events - it can be the perfect venue for everything from christenings, parties, weddings and even funeral wakes. Although busy during the week, it is much quieter at weekends and using our unique canopy and liner the hall can be transformed to look like the best marquee; just add your own stamp with balloons, flowers - the sky is the limit.

There is also the 'committee room' which can be used for smaller gatherings, business meetings and is often available throughout the week. The room will

With ample parking and good kitchen facilities (we were recently told by an outside caterer that it is the best village hall kitchen in the area) this is the perfect venue for any event. If you are planning a social gathering look no further; contact Lee or take a look at our website, and you will find the hall is very good value whatever you are planning.
