Nancy Andrews (nee Franklin) rang to remind us of her family connection with Prebendal House after reading of the return of Dr Thomas Brookes' portrait. In the June/July 2004 issue we featured an article by Nancy about The Last of the Franklins.

“My father, Arthur Thomas Brookes Franklin, was born in 1885. Through the earlier marriage connections with the Brookes family of Parsonage Farm (later the Prebendal House), the then owner, Thomas Brookes, a bachelor, was godfather to my father and had told my grandfather that if he would include

Thomas Brookes in my father's name, he would leave Parsonage farm to him in his will.

Grandfather did so, but when he sent my father to London to learn a trade, Thomas Brookes took umbrage and cut my father out of his will. So no Prebendal for me!”

Rotary Club Name Change...

Kingham and the Wychwoods

July saw a change of name for Kingham and Daylesford Rotary Club to Kingham and The Wychwoods.

Says new club president Jacqui Martin:

“There are a lot of opportunities to help the communities in Ascott, Milton and Shipton -under - Wychwood”.

The club which will meet in Kingham and the Wychwoods regularly on several Monday evenings was launched at the Milton fete. We are a very informal group almost 50/50 ladies and gents with members from early thirties to early eighties!
