

The Wychwood

Harvest Home

With the very successful MUWAGA Produce Show, pages 36 and 37, and news of the harvest gathered in in record time on page 39, it seems summer is over and our attention turns to autumn. What a summer it has been though, with glorious weather for the village fetes, success for the girls' cricket teams, enchanting entertainment from the Wychwood Saplings, page 33, the summer reading scheme at the library, page 55 and the Wilderness Festival, page 19. There is never time to be bored in our villages, whatever your age.

Summer may be almost over but there is much to look forward to in the autumn. The chance for families to get together at Hope Street at Milton Baptist church, the Wychwood Singers singing their hearts out, the chance to walk through secret parts of the Wychwood Forest, the Ascott Charity Run, the firework display at Shipton Cricket Club on November 2nd, and the promise of another Wychwood Players pantomime - 'Oh No It Isn't!' With so much to keep us entertained as the nights draw in why bother to go further afield?

In this issue we are pleased to feature news from Milton and Ascott as well as Fifield. Please keep it coming. As our title tells us, we are The Wychwood Magazine and we rely on our readers to provide interesting articles to fill our pages.
