

Wychwood Library News

Wychwood Library's annual Summer Reading Challenge this time themed 'Creepy House' has been another major success. Well over 200 children joined the challenge to read six books or more during the summer holidays. So well done to you all and remember to come along and pick up your certificates and medals. We held a 'Fantastic Fossils' day at the end of July; Owen Green from the Oxfordshire Geology Trust brought along a variety of fossils and some enormous footprints taken from imprints found in a local gravel pit.

wide range of books intended to boost health, mood and wellbeing. Within the scheme is 'Books on Prescription', an approved list of books on mental health issues such as anger, anxiety, depression and stress. Local health practitioners can prescribe books on the list to patients or individuals can choose for themselves titles that might be helpful. Just check out the 'Reading Lists' section in the online library catalogue or come in and we will be happy to help.

Reading For Health

Computer classes will begin at the end of October; please book early as places are limited. Classes will run on Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 4pm. Our thanks go to Derek Willis for these.

Look out for our sales of ex-library books on the first Saturday of the month starting on the 5th of October. All funds will go back into the library system to help with the purchase of new book stock.

Library members may view the library catalogue online in their home using library card and PIN. You can also renew your books, provided they are not reserved by someone else. Pick up one of our new online brochures.

Oxfordshire libraries are encouraging people to read their way to better health with the 'Reading Well' initiative; part of a national scheme. It brings together a
