

Wychwood Library News

A very happy Christmas and New Year to you all and let us hope that it is a good one for everyone. Winter is the ideal time for relaxing with a good book. Take out an armful and enjoy yourself. We have so many new titles coming in there will be something to tempt you. We now have a Chip and Pin credit card and debit card service on our self-service machines; use this to pay fines and other library costs. The minimum amount payable is £1 and the process is similar to self service at your local supermarket.

www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/oxfordshirehistory and discover the great many resources in the Oxfordshire History Centre which is in St Luke's Church, Temple Road, Cowley. Some parking is available. Here they collect, preserve and make available archives, photographs and printed material relating to Oxfordshire and its history.

Useful Websites

I am always reminding you that we have several systems available to prevent you incurring fines. If we have your email address you can receive a prompt, three days in advance of your books' due date. Or you can telephone us and leave a message or telephone the 24 hour renewals hotline on: 0845 1202811. Check out our website for children's activities www.oxme.info This includes a special section with information for different ages. Let us help you get Online

Our computer training classes have started again. So much information is available online these days and so much of life is governed by being able to use these resources. We are here to help you with this. Give us a call or pop in to book a time. Remember to visit the library on the first Saturday of the month for our sale of books. Takings go to provide yet more book stock.

Do not forget our regular events; weekly Wednesday coffee mornings, two reading groups per month, fortnightly IKNIT knitting and craft morning, poetry and philosophy groups and our junior Wychwood Wordpeckers reading discussion group.
