

Leaffield Fete and Dog Show 2014

What a day! There was the funfair for the children and the Pimms tent for the slightly older children and for our four-legged friends there was the dog-show, with 62 entrants. A lovely golden retriever, from Leaffield, won the ‘best in show’.

wanging’ contest. Sadly Paddy did not win but he did provide a hilarious moment. The most anticipated contest was the Scarecrow competition. The Judges awarded their prize to ‘Sir Edmund Hillary’.

We provided lunch with the pig roast, puddings from the tea tent, all washed down with Pimms. With all the energy buzzing everyone joined in the tug-of-war or took aim at the coconut shy. So many stalls and so many people; did you miss out on the fun?

The fete took a trip down Memory Lane, starting with a two-minute silence to remember those who died in the First World War. Then we jumped to the 40s with Land Girls manning the plant stall. Then on to the 60s with a few hippies and all the way to the 80s with Punk Rockers and then up to date with our incredible Leaffield fete.

The highlight of the afternoon must be Paddy taking out a window in the ‘welly-

...And We Made over £4,000!

The village prize went to the Land Girl who wanted to ‘pig for victory’!

Thank you to everyone who came and supported the fete; we could not have raised so much money without you. But more importantly thank you to everyone who sponsored the fete; see the village website for full details.

Time now to hang up the organiser’s jacket and go on a long, summer vacation. But never fear, I will be back to make Leaffield fete bigger and even better. Time flies and it will soon be 2015 and time for another perfect English fete, complete with Charlbury Morris.
